Welcome to the 108 Dental Surgery.
Our aim is to provide good quality, affordable dentistry in an informal but efficient environment.

Our team is able to provide all aspects of dentistry ranging from routine, preventative maintenance through to full mouth restoration including all aspects of cosmetic work. We also have an in house dental hygienist.

Should there be any need for specialist treatment e.g orthodontics, periodontists, we have built up over the past twenty years a network of specialists in London and beyond with whom we work very closely

By approaching dentistry in this structured way together with careful explanation we find we are able to demystify what can often be very confusing

Registering with the Practice

At the first visit we discuss your requirements and carry out a full examination.
Together we can then make an itemised plan to provide a structured course of treatment with full breakdown of the cost involved. We will set a system based on NICE guidelines and your preference.
